Foreword

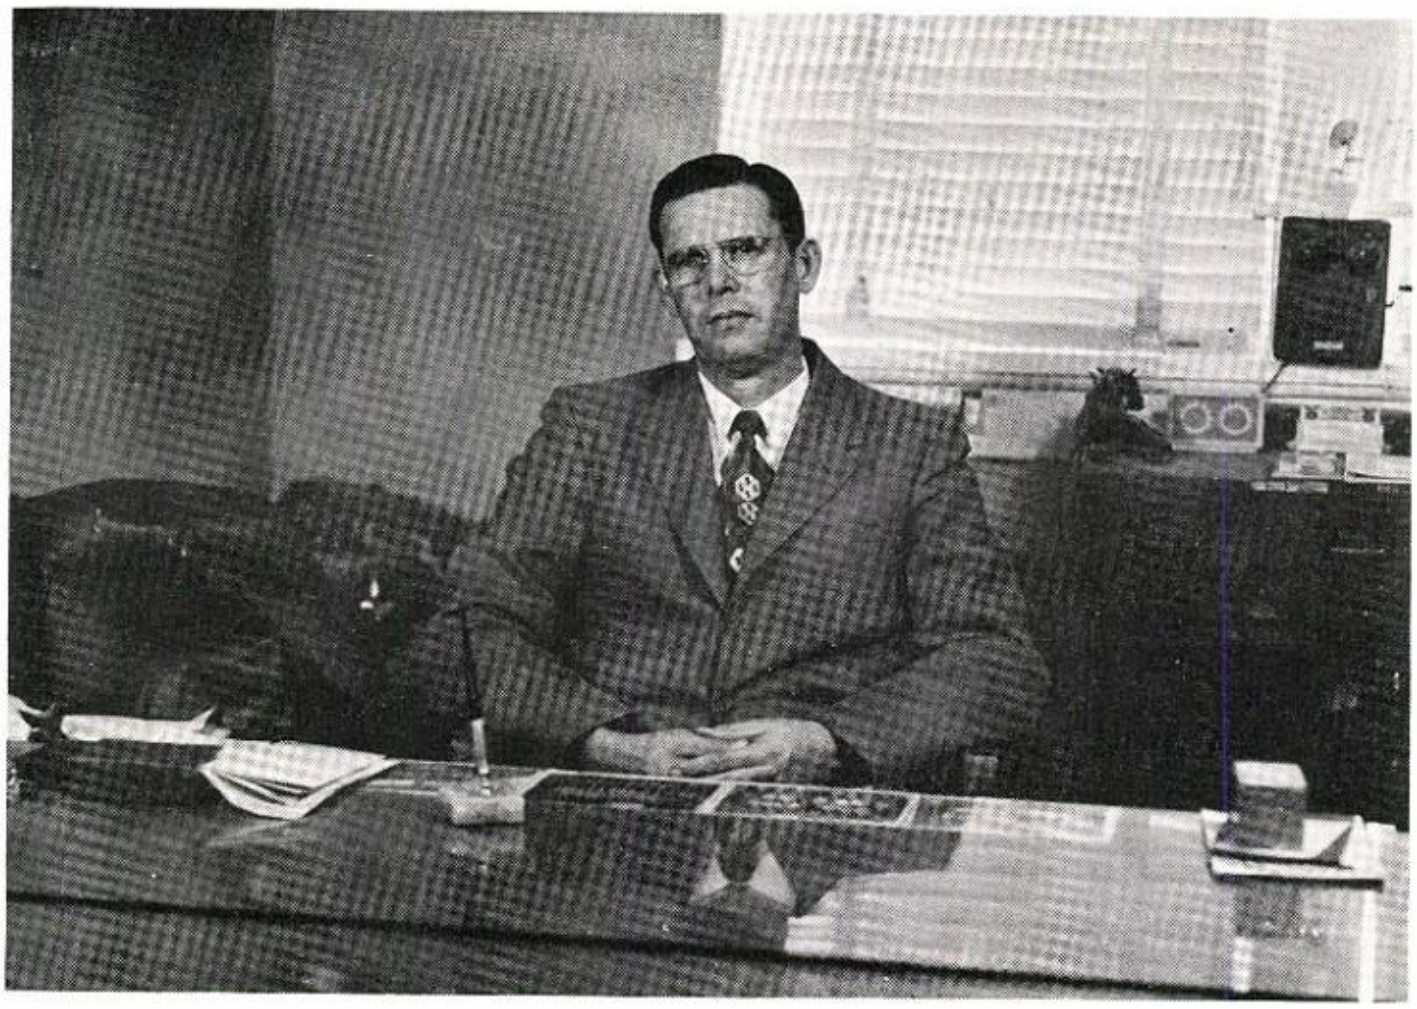
Again, we present to you our Italy High School Yearbook, "The Gladiator". We have tried to include a portion of the activities in both grade and high school. We have classroom and other scenes of which we hope will be of lasting memories to everyone.

We trust you will remember your school years with pleasure and that the training you have received will be of utmost importance in years to come.

The Editor

In Memory of

Mrs. Era Ware, a very lovable person, was a friend to all. She was truly thoughtful of others. Mrs. Ware will always be remembered for the many contributions she made to the school and the community of Italy.



Dedication

To a person who has made many advancements in our school system, the staff proudly dedicates this volume of The Gladiator.

He has made many improvements in the school. He is a person who is willing and ready to help every student in any problem.

For your many accomplishments and your friendliness to all, Mr. Fletcher, we proudly dedicate this book to you.

Almost a quarter of a century has passed since USECO published its first school annual. As we review those pages of yesteryear, a pleasant thought comes to mind—on some tomorrow this, the nineteen hundred and fifty-five edition, will take its place in your heart as a pictorial history of the "good ole' days."

We know this book will increase in value with the passing of each year, and are honored to have played a part in recording it.

Hello Harold,

It has been the best year of my life while you were around. It had to have someone to compete for valvictorian against me. It has always been fun when you are around. You liven up parties, and keep doing it old pal.

Best of Luck

Jerry
